A CONFLAGRATION IN BALTIMORE CITY.

Fire Broke Out in the Wholesale District on Sunday.

The Estimated Loss to Property
Will Aggregate About Two Hundred Million Dollars.

Engines Were Sent From Philadelphia and Washington to Assist Baltimore Firemen.

Business Houses Were Blown up With Dynamite to Check the Spread of the Flames.

About Twenty Blocks of the Most Modern and Substantial Buildings
Are in Ruins.

The Post Office Building and the $4,- 000,000 Courthouse Are Doomed—
The Holiday Street Theater
Has Been Blown Up.

Baltimore, Feb. 8.—The fire which broke out at a few minutes before 11 o'clock Sunday morning in the wholesale dry goods house of John E. Hurst & Co., has raged with unrestrained fury continuously ever since, and at midnight it is still unchecked but is steadily eating its consuming way eastward on Baltimore street, after having destroyed almost all of the large stores and warehouses in the wholesale district around Hopkins place and all the buildings on both sides of Baltimore street from Howard to Holiday streets, from Charles and Baltimore to Charles and Lexington and on Fayette street, Charles to Holiday, including a total of about 20 blocks of the most modern and substantial buildings in Baltimore, involving a loss which is estimated at $200,000,000.

Buildings Blown Up.

Many substantial buildings were blown up to check the flames. Subsequently the splendid structure of J. W. Putts & Co., notions, at Charles and Fayette streets, was dynamited, and then the Daily Record building, Ross' drug store and others. But this heroic remedy merely delayed but did not seriously impede the onward march of the conflagration, and for two hours or more the fire department was stopped practically helpless and resourceless. In the face of the roaring furnaces which sent their fierce tongues 200 feet into the air and which filled the heavens with a pall of black funeral smoke, and then with vivid sheets of sparks and lurid cinders.

Following the rapid destruction of the palatial commercial buildings in the wholesale district the cyclone of roaring flames burst into Baltimore street, licking within a few minutes the seven-story Mullins hotel like some insatiable monster and rapidly rolling with irresistible force both eastward and westward, cutting down wholesale and retail houses, manufacturing, shops, jewelry stores, furniture emporiums and restaurants. At Charles street the remorseless tide swept on down Baltimore street, but also turned into Charles street, where it quickly engulfed the 11-story Union Trust building, starting eastward on Fayette street.

ROARING WAVE OF FLAME.

Everything in Its Path Was Quickly Consumed.

By 8 o'clock the occupants of the Daily Herald building, at Fayette and St. Paul streets, and of the Record building, opposite, were compelled to vacate by the onrushing flames, as were the occupants of the Calvert and Equitable structures, two of the most massive office buildings in Baltimore.

Down Baltimore street a parallel wave of roaring, crackling flames swept, consuming everything in its course, speedily reaching the Evening News building, from which the employees had to hastily flee, though not until valuable records had been removed. Shortly thereafter the Continental Trust Co., a 14-story building, took fire. A block below the American newspaper building was enveloped in clouds of sparks and burning splinters and the employees were ordered out. The Sun has been arranging to print its Monday's issue in its job office, which is situated at a distant point from the path of the fire.

Financial District Suffered.

The financial district, including the chief banking and brokerage firms on South and German streets, were doomed and scores of the city's leading financiers and business men are scurrying in and out of their offices bearing packages or placing valuables in conveyances.

During all these hours the pyrotechnic display has been magnificent and imposing beyond the power of painter to depict. At this hour vast columns of seething flame are shooting skyward at varying points of the compass, and the firmament is one vast prismatic ocean of golden and silver sparks. Great multitudes of people line the streets, awe-struck with the panorama which is being enacted before their eyes.

At 10:40 o'clock the roof of the building occupied by the Associated Press took fire and the employees were compelled to vacate, though they had time to take away with them their telegraph instruments, typewriters and other valuable equipment.

PEOPLE INJURED.

Seventeen Were Taken to the Hospital, Most of Them Firemen.

The city hospital, corner of Calvert and Pleasant streets, removed to other hospitals as rapidly as possible the 24 patients in that institution. Seventeen injured were brought to this hospital, most of them firemen. They were suffering from burns, scalds and lacerations. Nearly every person is in the fire district. So far as known at this hour no one has been killed.

Detachments of the Fourth and Fifth regiments have been called out and are patrolling the streets in the vicinity of the fire, guarding property and keeping order.

Fortunately thus far the conflagration has not reached the residence portion of the city, but fires are breaking out in East Baltimore and the indications are that the residence streets are doomed to be invaded.

The indications are that not a single morning newspaper will be able to get out an issue Monday morning, with the possible exception of the Sun, which has an auxiliary plant. There are five morning papers here, three English and two German.

The Baltimore & Ohio railroad office building has been destroyed and so has the Maryland Institute of art building.

A Call For Assistance.

Though every bit of fire fighting apparatus in the city was called into requisition, as the flames continued to spread, the firemen realized that they had a task before them which was too great for them to combat. Telegrams for fire engines were sent to Washington and Philadelphia and about 1 o'clock six engines arrived from Washington and four from Philadelphia and joined in the battle with the flames.

Engines from stations in Baltimore, Howard, Anne Arundel and Harford counties also arrived as soon as possible, some of the apparatus traveling a distance of 30 miles and more.

Water plugs in every section within a radius of half a mile from the fire were in use, and it is roughly estimated that there were 350 hose all playing at one time upon different parts of the conflagration.

Owing to the great congestion of fire apparatus, the crowds of people and the general confusion, many of the engines from out of town were unable to find a place where they would be of any service.

MORE BUILDINGS BLOWN UP.

Sun and American Newspaper Buildings Dynamited.

Washington, Feb. 8.—A dispatch received from Baltimore at 2 o'clock Monday morning says the fire was still raging fiercely. The post office building is burning, also the $4,000,000 courthouse. The Holiday street theater has been blown up with dynamite and the United States express offices and central offices of the Baltimore & Ohio railroads are burned. A report was received that both the Sun building and American, directly across the street, had been dynamited.

A telephone message from Baltimore over the Baltimore & Ohio wires at 2:15 o'clock says the fire has reached Jones Falls, the stream that divides Baltimore and East Baltimore, and that a high wind is blowing. The East Baltimore section consists of small residential houses.

The burned area at this time is three-quarters of a mile long and from two to eight blocks wide.

The entire staff of the Baltimore Sun was transferred to Washington at 11 o'clock Sunday night and that paper will be issued by the use of the plant of the Evening Star.

Estimates of the area burned made by the Sun staff place it at between 23 and 24 blocks, all of which is in the business section of the city.

Fire Still Spreading.

Baltimore, Feb. 8.—At 4 a. m. the fire continued to spread in an easterly direction and continued beyond the control of the multitude of firemen. The news that 11 fire engines and equipment had left New York city to reinforce the local department was hailed with delight by the weary men. Moving wagons are busily at this hour removing the household goods of the residences being threatened by the rapidly extending flames.

More Engines Arrive.

Baltimore, Feb. 8.—At 5 o'clock Monday morning the fire continued to burn furiously, but has not yet extended beyond Jones Falls. A number of engine companies have just arrived and began to throw streams of water upon the burning buildings, several of which have been dynamited to prevent the spread of the flames. The city is practically under martial law, the Fourth and Fifth regiments, Maryland militia, together with a company of regular artillery men from Fort McHenry, reinforcing the local police force to keep the crowds in check.

CHICAGO'S SYMPATHY.

Mayor Harrison Sends a Message to Mayor Robert McLean.

Chicago, Feb. 8.—The following message was sent to Mayor Robert M. McLean, of Baltimore, by Mayor Carter H. Harrison Sunday night:

"Details of the great calamity which has visited your city have just been received by me. To us a conflagration of this kind is brought home with all the more emphasis because of our own experiences in dealing with awful catastrophes. We have not forgotten the fire of 1871, and the accompanying loss of life and property. The news of your misfortune comes to us at a time when Chicago is still in mourning for its recent theater disaster.

Chicago extends to you its sympathy most deeply for it remembers well what such a disaster means. Chicago assures you of its desire to furnish all the material aid possible."

Mayor Harrison sent a similar message to Gov. Warfield of Maryland.

BURNED AT THE STAKE.

Negro and His Wife Put to Death By An Angry Mob.

Doddsville, Miss., Feb. 8.—Luther Holbert and his wife, Negroes, were burned at the stake here Sunday by a mob of over 1,000 persons for the killing of James Eastland, a prominent white planter, and John Carr, a Negro, on Wednesday at the Eastland plantation, two miles from this city. The burning of Holbert and his wife closes a tragedy which cost eight lives has engaged 200 men and two packs of bloodhounds in a four day's chase across four counties and has stirred this section of Mississippi almost to frenzy.

Russian Black Sea Fleet.

Paris, Feb. 8.—A dispatch to the Paris edition of the New York Herald from St. Petersburg says that Adm. Skrydloff, commander of the Russian Black Sea fleet, will be given command of the naval forces in the far east.

Church Consumed By Fire.

Logan, Ia., Feb. 8.—Fire in the First Christian church, which broke out just after services began Sunday, created a panic. The flames communicated to the bell tower, which fell in a few moments after the congregation had got out.

Holiday For Carriers.

Washington, Feb. 8.—The post office department announced that all rural free delivery carriers in the United States will have a holiday February 22, Washington's birthday. There are approximately 20,000 of these carriers.

The Iroquois Theater.

Chicago, Feb. 8.—A contract has been let for refitting and redecorating the Iroquois theater in which 672 lives were lost on December 30 last. The management expects to reopen the house in the early spring.

Fire in a Newspaper Plant.

St. Paul, Minn., Feb. 8.—A bulletin from Winnipeg says that a serious fire is raging in the Tribune building. Operators and employees in the Free Press block adjoining have been compelled to leave the building.

Death of James Boorman Colgate.

Yonkers, N. Y., Feb. 8.—James Boorman Colgate died at his home here after an illness of several months. Mr. Colgate was the first to organize during the civil war the New York gold exchange.

Wind and Sleet Storms.

Richmond, Wis., Feb. 8.—Wind and sleet storms have greatly interfered with the operation of telephone and telegraph lines in this vicinity. Several miles of poles and wires are prostrated.

College Demolished by Wind.

Stanford, Ky., Feb. 8.—The wind storm Sunday morning badly damaged the Christian church in Crab Orchard and the Christian college in Hustonville.

TRAGEDY IN A THEATER.

Two Men Were Killed and a Panic Narrowly Averted.

Middlesboro, Ky., Feb. 8.—A double tragedy occurred in the Princess theater and only the presence of mind of the orchestra leader averted a panic while the West minstrels were showing.

John Burns, white, and Jess Sharp, colored, were both killed instantly. A Negro named John White killed Burns, and a stray shot from Burns' pistol killed Sharp.

Burns was until recently on the police force and had just gone on the colored side of the balcony to stop a quarrel. As soon as he entered the door both pulled pistols, White knocking Burns' arm down as he fired. The ball went through Sharp's head.

White then shot Burns, and after his victim fell sent two more bullets into his body.

At the sound of the first shot the people started to rush for the door. The leader of the orchestra rapped loudly, and the musicians started to play "Dixie." This so reassured the audience that before any one was seriously hurt in the stampede it was quieted.

STORM IN KENTUCKY.

The Damage Will Run Into the Hundreds of Thousands of Dollars.

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 8.—A storm, accompanied by rain, hail, thunder and lightning swept through Kentucky Saturday night, causing damage which will run into the hundreds of thousands of dollars. At Cornishville seven houses and a church were wrecked. At Carlisle a new school building, unfinished, was demolished with a loss of $5,000. At Fairview and Paint Lick churches were wrecked. In addition to these items damage to smaller buildings and bridges at a score of towns was widespread. In some places the storm assumed the proportions of a cloudburst.

Lexington, Ky., Feb. 8.—Saturday night's storm did much damage in the blue grass district. Interurban traffic between here and Paris was interrupted by the loss of the famous old bridge over Elkhorn creek near J. B. Haggin's Elmendorf farm. This bridge was built in 1834 and partly burned in 1863 when Capt. Peter Everett, the famous confederate scout, attempted thus to capture Gen. Burbridge.

Counterfeit Ten Dollar Notes.

Paducah, Ky., Feb. 8.—Doss Boatright, of near Murray, Calloway county, Ky., was arrested and brought here for making counterfeit $20 bills. The surrounding country has been flooded with them and six men are now in jail for passing them. Boatright failed to give a $5,000 bond and went to jail. He is an amateur photographer.

Newcomer on Running Turf.

Lexington, Ky., Feb. 8.—Among the newcomers on the running turf for next season will be Mode Nicoll, of this city, and who will start out with a stable of youngsters. He has three now which are being trained by P. W. Ray, and will make other additions before the racing season.

Horsemen Attend Woodward Sales.

Lexington, Ky., Feb. 8.—Horsemen were arriving Sunday night from all parts of the country for the Woodward sales, which begin in this city Monday. Judging from the talk in the hotel lobby Sunday Scott Hudson will be a strong contender for Hawthorne.

Village Wrecked by Storm.

Harrodsburg, Ky., Feb. 8.—Cornishville, nine miles from this place, was almost wiped off the earth by a cyclone Sunday morning at 4 o'clock. There was no loss of life. Not a timber of the large bridge that spans Chaplin river was left standing.

Water a Foot Deep.

Carlisle, Ky., Feb. 8.—A heavy thunderstorm damaged the public school building, under construction, about $5,000, unroofing the colored Methodist church and blowing off chimneys at many residences. Water ran a foot deep in the streets.

To Close Sunday Saloons.

Lexington, Ky., Feb. 8.—The anti-gambling league of this county, which brought about wholesale arrests for gaming one year ago, is now bent upon the Sunday closing of saloons. Sunday a number of spotters were taking names.

Tobacco Destroyed by Storm.

Lancaster, Ky., Feb. 8.—A severe wind and rain storm did thousands of dollars worth of damage in this country. A tobacco barn, the property of J. Wade Walker, was demolished and the contents, about 30,000 pounds of tobacco, destroyed.

Ashland, Wis., Feb. 8.—One death has been reported as a result of the terrific blizzard which has been raging here and there is not much doubt that more fatalities have occurred. Street car traffic has been entirely stopped.

WAR IS IMMINENT.

Officially Announced That Japan
Has Broken Off Diplomatic Relations With Russia.

CAUSES A PROFOUND SENSATION.

This Action Appears to Be Only a Step Toward Hostilities Between the Two Nations.

Japan Will Unquestionably Seize Upon Corea, and the Whole World Is Eagerly Awaiting Developments in the Far East.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 8.—Count Lamsdorff, the Russian foreign minister, has officially informed all Russian representatives abroad that Japan has decided to break off all negotiations with Russia and to withdraw her minister and her whole Japanese delegation staff from St. Petersburg. The Russian foreign minister thereupon ordered the Russian minister, Baron De Rosen, and his entire Russian staff to leave Tokio immediately.

Tokio, Feb. 8.—The severance of diplomatic relations between Russia and Japan appears to be only a step towards war, although when the ministers of Russia and Japan withdrew from their respective posts quick and decisive action is expected. When Minister of Foreign Affairs Komura on Saturday notified Baron De Rosen, the Russian minister, of Japan's determination to sever diplomatic relations he is reported to have declared to him that Japan is tired of Russia's delays, evasions and insincerity and has decided to take independent action for the conservation of Japan's Oriental interests. During the final negotiations Japan's repeated requests for an answer were treated in a most unsatisfactory manner. Japan waited until convinced that it was useless to wait longer and has now ended the discussion. The indications are that there will be no formal declaration of war. Japan will publicly define its position to the powers. On Monday Japan will unquestionably seize Corea, and although Russia has previously intimated that it would not interfere, in view of that country's present attitude, developments are eagerly awaited.

Paris, Feb. 8.—The official announcement that Japan has broken off diplomatic relations with Russia has caused a profound sensation here, as it was generally accepted as being only one step short of actual war.

The first intimation of this move reached Foreign Minister Delcasse early in the day. While he was at the foreign office the French minister at Tokio telegraphed that he had taken charge of Russia's interests there on the departure of Baron De Rosen, the Russian minister to Japan. Later in the day M. Motono, the Japanese minister to France, delivered to M. Delcasse the official notification of the Japanese government of the severance of diplomatic relations with Russia. The French foreign minister communicated these announcements to President Loubet at the Elysee palace and throughout the day the ministers individually discussed the situation.

Public interest has been aroused to the highest pitch and all through the afternoon the boulevards were flooded with extras announcing Japan's action.

Sunday night the imminence of war is the universal theme in all public places, and crowds at the hotels, theaters and cafes are eagerly discussing the war news.

The embassies and legation were unusually active Sunday, many of them remaining open to communicate with their governments. United States Ambassador Porter, when seen Sunday night, expressed the deepest regret at the unfavorable turn of events.

About the only tangible indication that a chance still remains of avoiding war is the report that France and Great Britain will at the last moment exercise a strong restraining influence. Unfortunately this report can not be verified, as the officials seem to believe that Japan's decisive action has carried events beyond the point of effective intervention.

Did Not Create Much Excitement.

Vienna, Feb. 8.—The news of the rupture of diplomatic relations between Japan and Russia were published here in special editions of newspapers. It did not create much excitement, and it is considered mostly in the light of possible Balkan complications.

One Killed, Another Wounded.

St. Louis, Feb. 8.—In a fight Sunday said to have resulted from ill feeling, Joseph Little, proprietor of the Bachelor hotel, on Olive street, was shot and killed and Policeman Edward MacKeelo was shot and seriously wounded.

A SPLENDID SELECTION.

Governor Beckham has just announced the appointment of Hon. R. K. Hart, of Flemingsburg, as a member of the State Board of Equalization. Mr. Hart is especially qualified for this place from a business standpoint, and certainly from a political point of view no man in Kentucky deserves more at the hands of the present administration than does Mr.
 Hart. It was his tireless efforts as an organizer as a candidate for Railroad Commissioner in this district which was largely instrumental in securing for the State ticket the splendid Democratic majority of last November. We congratulate Gov. Beckham upon the good judgment he has displayed in this appointment.

Governor Beckham Saturday approved
 the bill appropriating $1,000,000 for a new State capitol.

In the Cincinnati courts Saturday, the marriage of James N. Taylor and Marian D. Spooner was annulled on the ground that the groom did not realize the import of the ceremony when it was performed. The parties were married in this city, as heretofore detailed in the BULLETIN. In her answer to the petition Miss Spooner says she did not know the condition of the plaintiff as to his mental weakness nor any of the things alleged concerning him at the time of or before the ceremony, but has since been informed and now recognizes and understands the situation.

The Register of the Kentucky State Historical Society has issued the January number. This magazine is just one year old, and compares very fairly with those of other State historical magazines, of many years standing. The editress is one of the most gifted daughters of our proud State, and anything to which she lends her aid cannot fail of success. Persons interested in the history of the State will find much to interest them in its pages. The historical sketches, by the editress, of the Governors of the State from its foundation to the present time render it peculiarly interesting to all Kentuckians. It is published three times a year—January, May and September. The price is $1 a year. Mrs.
 Jennie Morton, Frankfort, Kentucky, is the editress and State genealogist.

Judge Wall has returned from Louisville where he attended the organization of the commissioners who will have charge of Kentucky's exhibit at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition. The officers of the Kentucky Exhibit Association as already stated were elected to the same positions in the new association.
 Senator Cox was made one of the Executive Committee of five to take active charge of the business, and he is eminently well fitted for the place. This committee will meet every week at Louisville, and the full commission every month at same point, with occasional meetings at St. Louis. A suite of rooms is being prepared in the Kentucky Building for the use of the commissioners, and one of them will be present at all times and in special charge. This will give each member two weeks full charge of the hospitalities. The members will be expected to take their wives (if they have any) to assist. It was arranged to dedicate the Kentucky Building on Saturday next, and the Governor, Legislature and many other officials will be present, together with the commissioners. In the selection of officials in immediate charge of the building and exhibits, the commissioners desire to select Kentuckians of whom we can all be proud, and whose genuine cordiality will best uphold the reputation of the State.

JOHNSON MCCOY.

An Odd Character of Orangeburg Passed Away Last Week at a Ripe Age.

Johnson McCoy, for over half a century a resident of Orangeburg, died Wednesday morning last after a short illness of paralysis of the bowels. He was eighty-three years of age on Monday, February 1st, and had lived since the war (when his house was burned) in the ruins, which he, with incredible labor and pains, had rebuilt one story high with stone, in a vain effort to replace his home. His reason for occupying the den, as given by himself, was that an angel had appeared to him and telling him that he was a successor to Abraham and must live a hermit life. His room, occupied by himself, cats and chickens,
 was a veritable curiosity shop, rivaling
 the one which forms the title for one of Charles Dickens' creations. He had a mania for collecting odds and ends of rags, paper and iron, and amassed a stock that would gladden the heart of a junk man. He also made baskets and ink and until of late years peddled his productions among the neighbors.

For several years past he had been taken care of by Dr. Hord, in fact neighbors for years, notably Mr. Thos. J.
 Heflin, Mr. George Sedden and others, have carefully attended to his wants.
 Just a few days before his death he eat
 a mess of raw white fish, bones and all,
 which proceeding in itself was not conductive to longevity.

McCoy, notwithstanding his oddities,
 was a man of more than ordinary common sense, and delighted in reviewing past events and present political probabilities. He was a great lover of the children and the writer hereof has often seen him dividing his meal with a little tot while seated on the steps of a store or on the wall at the entrance of his tumbledown dwelling.

Efforts were made at various times to get him to allow parties to fix up his place without avail, until two years ago when at the earnest solicitation of Dr.
 Hord, the latter was allowed to put a tin roof over his bedroom. He was hurried Wednesday in the old graveyard at Orangeburg. May he rest in peace!

While deceased was generally known as McCoy yet his right name was McKay, and he was a brother of the late Miss Ann McKay, of this city.

Mrs. George Schwartz has been commissioned by the Grand Master to institute a new Rebekah Lodge, I. O. O. F., at Johnsonville, Bracken County. She left this morning for that point, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Emma,
 who will assist her in the work.

The twenty-third anniversary of the Christian Endeavor Society was observed by the Endeavors of this city with a union service at the Christian Church.
 Mr. Geo. H. Frank, leader. Interesting addresses were made by Rev. Dr. Barbour, Mr. L. H. Young and Mr. F. J.
 Michel. A large crowd was in attendance.

The BULLETIN's dispatches elsewhere tell of the terrible ruin wrought by the fire at Baltimore last night. Mr. D.
 Hechinger, who is in that city, wired his son, Mr. Ferd Hechinger, at 8:20 this morning that the fire was still raging, and that the best business district had been destroyed. Loss $50,000,000. It is the biggest fire since Chicago was destroyed.

Miss Julia Carney, formerly of this city,
 and Mr. Joe Blackman, of New Orleans, were married Thursday, at Bay St. Louis, Miss. The Enquirer says Miss Carney and Mr. Blackman met in that city about a year ago and soon became engaged, it being a case of love at first sight. Mr.
 and Mrs. George Howard Wilcox entertained Miss Carney at their Mt. Auburn residence Monday evening prior to her departure for the South.

About eighteen years ago, "Dutch Henry," or Henry Boricka, was murdered in Robertson County. His estate was taken into the courts, and the heirs got little if anything out of it. One Samuel Richie, of Nicholas, got a judgment against the estate but when it was sought to be collected the administrator claimed the money had all been paid out. Now, suit has been filed against the bondsmen of the administrator, seeking to recover Rich-ie's claim, which, with interest, amounts to between $600 and $700.

The most unwelcome visitor in Maysville
 Is any itching skin disease.
 Itching piles, irritating eczema Are bad company. We are glad to get rid of them.
 Doan's Ointment will drive them away.
 Plenty of Maysville endorsement to prove this.

Mrs. H. Poth, of Forest avenue, says:
 "Doan's Ointment is a wonderful preparation and cures as if by magic. For a long time I had an itching of the scalp which was particularly troublesome just before a rain. Learning that Doan's Ointment was highly recommended for all troubles of this nature I got a box at J.
 Jas. Wood & Son's drugstore, corner of West Second and Market streets. Its use soon ended the irritation. Two months have since elapsed and I have had no return whatever of the affliction."

Towels of Damsak

These are days that require faith in the store where you buy table linen.
 The price is advancing steadily and manufacturers have done many things to keep it down and at the same time offer linens that seem to equal the quality that could be bought for a like price before the advance. It is almost impossible for any but an expert to detect cotton when it is woven with linen until the laundry unbears the deception—then as every housewife knows the cotton rubs up fuzzy.

There is no cotton mixed linen masquerading as pure flax here. You can be absolutely certain every piece of linen you buy at Hunt's is genuine, no matter what its price. And one reason our prices continue so low is because our buying is done almost a year ahead, on nearly every important line.

Here are some important Towel items. Reader you'll be a buyer if you see these towels and compare price to quality.

For 25c.—Damask towels in new patterns, and some of the old-fashioned favorites our mothers loved. Fringed, hemstitched, all white or prettily bordered.

For 35c.—Larger and finer towels in styles described above.

For 50c.—Satin damask towels with drawn work borders or deep double knotted fringe.

For 75c.—Exquisite satin double damask towels made of the celebrated Courtral flax.

For $1.—Handsome towels fit for a Queen. Woven with a high luster that throws out the design in strong relief.

For $1½.—Beauties too regal for ordinary wear, but much liked for guest rooms, for dresser scarfs and the many uses of decorative linens.

TO

THE PUBLIC!

It is my desire to have all persons interested in buying or selling real estate to make it known to me. I shall take great pleasure in having you call at my office. There will, I doubt not, be great activity in farm lands in Mason County during the present year. If you wish to sell now is a good time to let it be known. I am having many inquiries for well located farms that can be bought at reasonable prices.

KEEP YOUR EYE ON MAYSVILLE CITY PROPERTY

during the next twelve months. I have a nice list of homes, vacant lots and some business houses for sale at prices that will make money for the man who has the nerve to buy.

I have some good land notes for sale. There is no safer investment.

Acme Cushion Shoes

For women are built with the idea of providing comfort for those afflicted with cold or tender feet. They are more popular this season than last because their value is better known.
 They are much more comfortable than a shoe with regular sole. The all-wool felt lining forms a flexible and elastic pad for the sensitive part of the foot to rest upon and affords protection from dampness. Sold by one first-class dealer in a town. In Maysville that's Never to the right or to the left, but always ONWARD is our motto. Pushing strong ahead—always trying to better ourselves, better the store and to better Maysville.

Isn't the rule at flinch parties to only play flinch? If so the rule was broken the other night. A gentleman remarked to one of us that he was at a flinch party and when the ladies got together they of course had to have a few words about dress and he overheard one say that since Merz Bros. advent into Maysville the tone of the dry goods business has greatly improved.

—Mrs. John Schnelle and children, of California, Ky., have been spending a few days here with relatives.

—Mrs. Dr. J. S. Barnes and daughter of Nicholasville are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Roe.

—Mr. E. L. Storms, of Chicago, and Miss Storms, of Sturgis, Mich., are guests of their sister, Mrs. George A. Bleich.

—Col. Wm. Daugherty, the advertising man of the Tobacco Fair, left this morning for Carlisle, Millersburg and Paris.

—Mrs. Bettie Barnes, who has been spending the winter at Mayslick, is now visiting Mr. and Mrs. James Rankins of Mt Olivet.

—Mrs. T. H. Byar, of Dayton, O., and Miss Lydia Byar, of Chatham, have been guests of Mrs. J. W. Downing, of the "Elms." Miss Byar has lately returned from a four months visit in New York City, and is greatly improved in health.

The "Tobacco Fair" is being advertised by a competent man at Brooksville court today.

Do not fail to attend the Board of Trade meeting tonight. Any citizen will be welcome.

The first box of samples for the tobacco fair was received from Tangletown last Thursday.

The personal estate of the late Wm. Byron was appraised at $340, all of which was allotted to the widow.

Navigation has been resumed. The Keystone State passed down this morning and some towboats up, with empties.

The cold wave that struck here Sunday afternoon sent the temperature down from 64° to 23°, the latter notch being reached this morning at 7 o'clock.

Pan "kake" flour and syrup—Calhoun's.

Master John McGlone is on the sick list.

One hundred copies latest sheet music at Gerbrich's.

It is less than two weeks from now until the Tobacco Fair.

The widow of the late James Barry was allotted $554 personalty.

Sheriff Roberson is in receipt of a telegram from officials at Milwaukee requesting him to hold Thomas Lowrey, who is awaiting trial for nipping a diamond stud from Mr. W. R. Varian.

The telegram stated that Lowrey is an escaped convict from the Wisconsin penitentiary.

The statement copied from a Cincinnati paper that John Farris, who formerly lived in Fleming and who died last week in Newport, left his family in destitute circumstances is not true.

Mrs. Farris did not have to call on the Oddfellows at all. They simply tendered their services as they always do in the case of a death.

Mr. C. M. Browning was a passenger on the Frisco Flyer that was wrecked Thursday afternoon at a point midway between Birmingham and Memphis.

He was quite badly bruised about the face and body, but fortunately escaped without serious injury.

He arrived here Friday and is visiting his parents, Dr. and Mrs. A. G. Browning.

WORK OF GRAND JURY.

Fourteen Indictments Returned Saturday Against the Operators of "Slot Machines"—Other Indictments Reported.

As intimated in the BULLETIN last week the grand jury got after the operators of "slot machines" good and strong. At Saturday's session of the Circuit Court fourteen indictments were returned against them, the accused being as follows: Wm. Schatzman, Burgoyne & Mitchell, Thomas Ryan, Frank Eitel, Charles Owens, George Diener, John Brisbois, John Dersch, Chisholm & Whittington, Jos. Metcalf, John Wells, Oliver Greenlee, Simon Crowell and Wm. Schatzmann. The offense in each case is suffering and permitting gaming on their premises. The penalty is a fine of $200.

The grand jury also indicted Anna Duzan and Vacey Dean, alias Stacey, for keeping a disorderly house, and C. T. Leake for obtaining money under false pretenses. Leake is charged with obtaining $250 from the First National Bank last December. He was operating the "Old Gold" flour mill at the time, and represented to the bank that he intended to continue in business here. Shortly afterwards he suddenly left the city.

The grand jury presented its final report and was discharged. The public buildings and clerks offices were reported in good condition and well kept. In all, twenty-one true bills were reported by the jury.

Death of Elias Hall.

Mr. Elias Hall, whose illness was recently mentioned, died at 4:25 a. m. Sunday, at the home of his brother-in-law, Mr. Thomas Ryan, on East Fifth street, of lung trouble. He had been confined to his home about two months, but had been in feeble health several years. He was twenty-eight years of age and leaves two sisters, Mrs. Ryan and Mrs. John Burkhardt, and one brother, Frank, who is in the U. S. naval service. The funeral takes place Tuesday at 9 a. m. at St. Patrick's Church. Interment at Washington.

"The Telephone Girl" To-night.

"The Telephone Girl" Company will arrive at 3:20 this afternoon from Chillicothe, O. The company has been giving satisfaction in the towns they have played and with such people as Max Bloom, Mamie Keough, Harry Lyons, Misses Kendall and Thompson, Conrad and Clark, they should give a good show. See it at the opera house to-night. Seats now on sale at Ray's. Prices 25, 50 and 75 cents.

Dr. Alston Ellis, President of the Ohio State University, will deliver a lecture on "Education, Patriotism and Altruism," at the First Baptist Church Feb. 12th, at 7:30 p. m., under the auspices of the Teachers' Association of this city. Admission 25 cents. Dr. Ellis lectured here a year or so ago, and delighted a large audience.

The trustees of Central University, Danville, will meet at Lexington Thursday to elect a President of the college.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT.
 He Takes a Deep Interest in the Progress of the Baltimore Fire.

Washington, Feb. 8.—President Roosevelt took a personal interest in the reports of the progress of the fire in Baltimore which were sent to him from various sources. During the evening through his secretary he directed Maj. Richard Sylvester, the chief of police, to render all the assistance he could from his office to the stricken city. The Washington police bureau had a corps of detectives in Baltimore during Sunday afternoon and night. Following the president's directions Maj. Sylvester dispatched Capt. Pearson and a detail of 30 policemen for duty to assist in preserving order. Four engines were sent.

A Skirmish Reported.
 Monastir, Feb. 8.—A skirmish is reported to have taken place between Turkish troops and revolutionists in the Komitagis-Terin district, in which five Turks and four revolutionists were killed. Boris Sarafoff, the revolutionary leader, is expected in the field soon with a strong Macedonian escort.

Secretary Hay Returns.
 Washington, Feb. 8.—Secretary of State Hay returned to Washington from Thomasville, Ga., where he has been recuperating for the past two weeks. He seems almost entirely recovered from his severe indisposition. The secretary spent some time at the white house Sunday night in conference with President Roosevelt on the eastern situation.

Judge Thos. F. Tipton Expires.
 Bloomington, Ill., Feb. 8.—Judge Thomas F. Tipton died here Sunday, aged 70. He was a circuit judge for 13 years and a member of congress from 1877 to 1879.

ORANGEBURG, Feb. 5th.
 When lack of sweetness doth abound
 It kinder bores.
 Thursday there wasn't an ounce of sugar in town
 At both the stores.
 But molasses and the lasses
 Kept supply of sweetness up.
 Yet we don't care for long sweetness to stir in our coffee cup.

It is a foregone conclusion that Clarence Calvert will be a Benedict ere the leaves begin to fall. Clarence who is clerk for D. G. Wilson, is deservedly popular and the best wishes of all citizens go with him in his new venture.

Ab. Bramel, a nearby farmer, is the bappy father of a bouncing baby boy. Up to the present writing he has half a dozen young hopefuls —four boys and two girls. The new comer has a heavy suit of jet black hair that is the wonder of all beholders.

Mrs. A. J. Hayden and Chas. Wm. Hayden, late of the Blavia (Ohio) Sun, arrived in "burg" Tuesday afternoon of last week. They will make their home with Mrs. Mattie Roe for some time to come.

Mr. Wright, a brother of Mrs. Crosby, of this place, is reported seriously ill at her home. It was reported that he was suffering from a stroke of paralysis.

Flinch is now a very popular game in and around "burg." As it is leap year, we hereby issue an earnest call on the young ladies to not flinch, but see that the young men are taken to and from various games with care and courtesy.

THE FEATHERS AND THE FUR.
 Doe flord loves to go a hunting and oft with his dogs and gun.
 He chases Molly Cotton just fer to see her run.
 He loves to see the quail arise all with a deafening whir.
 And folks at home he satisfies with the feathers and the fur.

He hunts the unclamed grasshopper on flowery meads in spring.
 And then his hook and line into North Fork he does fling.
 Of course he gets a whopper every time he tries.
 He always catches plenty and keeps his string right straight.
 And not one time in twenty tells flbs 'bout the size and weight.

He mends the people that gets broke (when it's not in the purse).
 Au folks what's sick an goes to him they never get any worse.
 He always rides behind a nag that makes the slow ones stir.
 But loves the best to tote the bag with the feathers and the fur.
